U.S. Trademark Database Search Record

[VAR_BRAND_NAME] provides you with a Trademark Clearance search Report which merely involves an extensive process of analyzing, reviewing, and searching multiple trademark databases, at state or federal level accordingly, in order to avoid any litigation before the registration of your mark gets done. The search for conflicting trademarks is extremely essential as you get to know whether your mark (name, slogan, logo, phrase, etc.) can be registered with the USPTO (U.S. Patent and Trademark Office) without any complications or contraventions. So, a complete analysis of USPTO databases, internet searches, state trademark databases, and unregistered trademarks lets you figure out and decide whether you should file the intended trademark registration.

Trademark/Service Application, Basis for Filing

As per the Search Clearance Document generated by the Trademark Electronic Search System, the USPTO assigned Classes are vital to file. Each Class is supposed to be filed separately with each class costing an amount of $350. Once the Trademark Search Clearance Report is received, USPTO will begin with its filing process.

USPTO Filing Process

With a standard USPTO fee, your mark will be filed under your name. USPTO would assist with document completion and filing with USPTO on your behalf. Upon filing, you will be provided with a filing receipt along with a serial number which further can be used to track the status of your application. Once the filing is through, the USPTO takes around 3 – 5 months to assign the application to an examining attorney, who then manually reviews the application and decides on the approval. The overall Trademark registration process may take up to 9 – 10 months to get approved.

Overview of USPTO Trademark Classes

Understanding the correct USPTO class for your trademark is essential to ensure robust protection and effective brand management. By registering under the appropriate class, you can safeguard your products and services in their respective markets, preventing potential conflicts and enhancing your brand's visibility. The information provided helps in making an informed decision about which classes to choose for your trademark registration needs.

Final Step to USPTO Filing

Payment Terms

The USPTO is a Standard Fee for all the assigned classes according to the USPTO Search Document. Once the process begins, the fee shall be billed on the account already in use and a serial number shall be sent to you within 7 Business days.
